December Days

A holiday journal from Sigil and Scribe

One prompt a day. Thirty days of December, at your own pace.

How to use this journal

This journal is for December, in whatever shape December takes at your house this year.

One prompt a day, or one prompt whenever. There are thirty prompts and the month has its own pace; you do not have to keep up with either of them.

Each day offers one gentle prompt, one line for a good thing, and a weather check for your mood. Skip a day and come back. Nothing here is unfinished, because nothing here is homework.

For the weather, circle what fits: sunny, cloudy, stormy, foggy, or clear night. December has weather inside a person too. Nobody fails at being cloudy.

When the thirty days are done, the journal is done. Keep it, gift it, or bring it back out next December.

A reflection tool, not therapy or medical advice.

DAY 1 OF 30

December is here. What does this month usually ask of you, and what are you hoping for instead?

One good thing:

Today's weather:

( ) Sunny ( ) Cloudy ( ) Stormy ( ) Foggy ( ) Clear night

Write as much or as little as you want.

DAY 2 OF 30

Write about the lights: on a tree, in a window, down your street. Which ones are your favorites?

One good thing:

Today's weather:

( ) Sunny ( ) Cloudy ( ) Stormy ( ) Foggy ( ) Clear night

Write as much or as little as you want.

What is one small good thing about right now, exactly as it is?

One good thing:

Today's weather:

( ) Sunny ( ) Cloudy ( ) Stormy ( ) Foggy ( ) Clear night

Write as much or as little as you want.

Describe a smell that means December to you. Where does it take you?

One good thing:

Today's weather:

( ) Sunny ( ) Cloudy ( ) Stormy ( ) Foggy ( ) Clear night
